Welcome to the spring edition of Litter Free News

This e-news gives you a quick run down of what's been going on across Dorset with our campaigns, partners and volunteers.

Lots has been going on over the winter months for the Litter Free team. New campaigns and working closely with businesses to help them move away from single-use items. Now that the weather is starting to warm up, we're looking forward to the Great Dorset Beach Clean (April 21st & 22nd) and seeing how we can keep Dorset's verges Litter Free.

If you want to add anything for our next e-news, then be sure to get in touch.

Litter Free Dorset's #LoveYourVerge campaign has rolled out across Dorset. The campaign aims at reducing roadside litter throughout Dorset and really embracing the wonderful wildlife that we have here in Dorset.

Have you seen our giant hedgehog or stag beetle whilst out and about the Dorset roads?! Follow the campaign via Litter Free Dorset's social media channels.

This year's 29th annual Great Dorset Beach Clean is going to be taking place Saturday April 21st and Sunday 22nd. There are 16 locations all along the Dorset coastline, so be sure to check the Litter Free Coast & Sea website for a full list of locations and times.

The Litter Free Dorset website is now LIVE!

Here you can find all information about past and present campaigns, how to get involved, and find out what events are coming up.

Back in February the Litter Free Coast & Sea team held a number of Plastic Surgery couple of weeks, so be sure to keep your eyes peeled on the website for resources, Q&As and information about how your business can get involved with the project.

And finally....we say a fond farewell to our Litter Free Coast & Sea and Litter Free Dorset project Officer, Charlie.

She is departing the Litter Free team after 18 months of working with us. We wish her all the very best in her new job working for Purbeck Ice Cream - yum!!

A part time role of Project Officer is now available (closing date March 25th). Please get in touch with the Litter Free team if you would like to know more information.

We love to hear stories of how Dorset's communities are working to make our coast and countryside Litter Free, so go on, big yourself up. Drop us a line and tell us what you're working on. We'd love to shout about what you're doing, and we might even be able to help.
